

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

MOUNT VERNON.

Hawathwa Lodge of Free Masons of Mount Vernon had an interesting meeting last night. There were eight candidates for the Master Mason's degree, and Worshipful Master Oliver began the work of conferring the degree at 5 o'clock, so as to end his work before midnight. There were many representatives of the Grand Lodge and past masters of subordinate lodges, and the most impressive in the history of the order. The Amphion Glee Club will give its first subscription concert for the season at West 125th Street, to-morrow evening, and, in addition to the club itself, musical talent from New-York will assist. The club is a home organization and is supported by patrons, this being its third year.

YONKERS.

In the last year seventy-five cases have received the attention of the Yonkers Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, sixteen arrests were made and fifty-three children were placed in institutions and homes. Richard W. Bogart, Professor William C. Russell and the Rev. S. Paries Cadman were elected trustees of the society.

The Viewville Library Association has been organized; Walter T. Munn, president; Isaac Minney, vice-president; F. O. Preethy, recording secretary; John Tracy, financial secretary; William Smith, treasurer. The new officers of St. John's Church, Yonkers, are George Campbell, treasurer; Miss Anna Finnegan, secretary. For the benefit of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, a collection was taken in the Tabernacle Hall last night and will continue through the week.

A special meeting of the Common Council has been called for to-night. The Rising Star Lodge, No. 12, A. M., has elected their officers. Stephen H. Bent, master; Samuel Hunt, senior warden; Theodore J. Bayer, junior warden; Wallace Smith, treasurer, and A. C. Mott, secretary.

NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

Additional charges were made yesterday against the Jersey City Street and Water Board by Dr. Ulysses Allen, Hugh Leslie and Thomas Hill. These include fraud in the manner of paying for work done on School Building No. 25; failure to provide proper school buildings, and closing Pleasant Street in the interest of the Pennsylvania Railroad. In regard to the rights of property owners and persons doing business on the street, Mayor Waner said he would hear the case on Tuesday. The original charges, which include misappropriation of funds and the closing of Railroad-ave., will be heard to-morrow.

NEWARK.

Leonard Schilling, forty-two years old, of No. 46 Sanford-st., was taken to the City Hospital yesterday, seriously wounded in the head. The shots were fired by himself. Schilling's wife and two children, a girl and a boy, were also wounded. His conduct of his misfortunes induced him to drink. On Tuesday he went to Woodland Cemetery, where his wife and children are buried, and, standing over his wife's grave, fired three shots into her head with a pistol. David McHugh, a brother-in-law, who was with his wife, Mrs. Schilling, a twenty-three-year-old employee of J. G. & J. N. Van Vleet, maltasters, at Commercial dock, struck yesterday against a reduction of wages from $5 to $3 a week.

ELIZABETH.

The Republican headquarters in Elizabeth was nearly destroyed by an unknown firebug on Tuesday night. He started the blaze in the dumb-waiter. It extended rapidly through the building, and caused considerable damage before the flames were subdued. There was no insurance on the building, which was being renovated. The place is a historical one, having been built soon after the Revolution. It was for many years the home of Dr. John Chetwood, a well-known physician and social leader in Elizabeth in the early part of his life. It is now the home of the Old Elizabeth High School. It was converted last year into the Republican headquarters. The police think they have a clew that may lead to the incendiary's detection.

STRANGE DEATH OF TWO FARMERS.

THEY TRY TO DRIVE OVER A BRIDGE AND FALL FROM THEIR SEATS—THE HORSES FOUND HANGING FROM THE TRESTLE.

William Rose, thirty years old, and Henry Balsley, over sixty, both well-known farmers, living west of Haverstraw, met a fearful death some time Tuesday night at a bridge on the New-Jersey and New-York Railroad between Haverstraw and Gardner's Mills. The men drove to Haverstraw with their horses yesterday, and after disposing of their stock stayed until late at night in Haverstraw in a muddled condition, it is not known why. They were on the road, and tried to drive across the railroad track. Upon reaching the trestle named, however, both must have been dislodged from their seats to the ground, two feet below. When the horses in charge of Conductor Birley came along yesterday morning at 7 o'clock, the track was blocked by the wreck; the horses were hanging from the trestle, and the bodies of Rose and Balsley were found on the ground. Whether death came from exposure by freezing or from shock, only the inquest will develop. The coroner's inquest, to the same effect, will be held until Coroner Hart ordered the removal of the bodies to Haverstraw. Rose was unmarried, but Balsley leaves a family.

MRS. FIELD'S VENTURE UNFORTUNATE.

SHE ASKS THE COURT TO APPOINT A RECEIVER FOR HER MILLINERY FIRM.

Judge Ingraham signed an order yesterday to compel William H. Curtis to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the millinery concern in which he and Mrs. Cyrus W. Field are partners. The story of Mrs. Field's plucky attempt to all in paying her husband's debts was told when the partnership was formed last fall. Mrs. Field acted as foreign agent for the firm, and has also spent much of her time at the showrooms, No. 219 Fifth-ave.

Mrs. Field is a business woman and wishes to conduct her business on business principles. She says that Mr. Curtis is lax in these affairs, and has refused to inform her exactly where the firm stands financially.

Albert H. Gleason, of Hastings & Gleason, No. 26 Broadway, is Mrs. Field's attorney. Speaking of the suit yesterday, he said: "We are seeking to assess the partnership out of Justice to Mrs. Field and the creditors of the firm. Mrs. Field agreed to use her influence, but did not agree to leave her presence to the business. She was, however, personally present from October 4 until recently, during the entire business day, and her health has been much worn by amounting to many thousands, but when Mrs. Field asked how matters stood Mr. Curtis said he really did not know. Regular books had been closed, and she had agreed to leave her presence to the business.
